

PROTECTING LOUISIANA'S HISTORICAL RECORDS IN EMERGENCIES

*Thursday, October 12, 2006
Wade O. Martin Auditorium
State Archives Building
3851 Essen Lane
Baton Rouge, Louisiana*

AGENDA

9:00 Call to Order/Introductions: Dr. Florent Hardy, Jr., State Archivist

9:10-11:30 “How did you do? Do you have electricity?”
Agencies affected by hurricanes Katrina and Rita

Moderator: V. Faye Phillips, LHRAB

Panelists: Charles Nolan, Archivist, New Orleans Archdiocese
Ann Wakefield, Archivist, New Orleans Notarial Archives
Dr. Wilber Meneray, Assistant Dean for Special Collections, Tulane University
Lena R. Torres, Clerk of Court, St. Bernard Parish
Pati Threatt, Assistant Archivist, McNeese State University
Dr. Michael Sartisky, President, Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities
Invited Representative from the Louisiana Recovery Authority

11:30-12:30 Light Lunch

12:30-2:50 “When it happens again...” Future concerns and preparedness

Moderator: V. Faye Phillips, Louisiana Historical Records Advisory Board

Panelists: Tina Mason, Head of Preservation Services, SOLINET
Elaine Smyth, Curator of Special Collections, LSU Libraries
Charles Jagneaux, Clerk of Court, St. Landry Parish
Julia Marks Young, Mississippi State Archivist
Emilie Leumas, Archivist, Diocese of Baton Rouge
Warren Woods, Collection Manager, The Historic New Orleans Collection
Invited Representative from FEMA and National Archives

2:50-3:00 Program Summary: Dr. Florence Jumonville, LHRAB

Sponsored by: Louisiana Historical Records Advisory Board, Louisiana State Archives, Office of Secretary of State and Louisiana Archives and Manuscripts Association*